8. Clerk Report: Karen reported the MAT District 1 Meeting is Wed Aug 4th in Rochester at the Eagles Club.
9. Other or Old Business: Wayne asked about any update on the possible changes at the recycling center. No new update has been received.
10. Supervisors Report: Wayne reported he is still working with the dept of homeland security and that the website changes are still on hold with the hosting and he is hoping to see the changes and will know what will happen by Sept.

Roy reported on the updates on the repairs on Evans Hills road and North Pine Creek road and should be ready along with tree trimming being done by Bennett brothers. Roy also received a call about speed on N. Pine Creek road. Discussion was held on looking into orange markings placed on the speed limit signs and talking with the sheriff dept on patrols.

Bob reported that the roads that are being seal coated have been mowed and rest of the roads will be done in the next month or so. Jack from Scott's construction called and advised they may be a week late but plan to meet the Aug deadline. The big tractor is having an issue with the 3 point not holding and Hamell Equipment believe it may have a bad seal in the 3-point control. Tractor was picked up and will be fixed along with a full service. The small chevy truck is up at GAK (Denstads) for service also at this time. Bob also reported that the lawn mower will need a new starter battery.

Discussion on some more tree trimming that would be needed on Bush Valley and also Crescent Hills and also that Crescent Hills has been sprayed for weeds.
